Dear Helen & Elmer,

I just got back to Naples after spending more than a week in Venice. Jim was there too. But because of the tragic assassination of Sadat while we were there the ship left Venice early (before we knew about it) So Jim stayed with me over the weekend then flew back to Naples to catch a military plane to the ship.
Due to uncertain flights, tho, he was still waiting in Naples when I got here. Now, tho, he's gone back.
